Facts & Figures about the TUI

TUI Group is the world's number one integrated tourism business. From now on, the broad portfolio gathered under the Group umbrella will consist of strong tour operators, 1,800 travel agencies and leading online portals, six airlines with more than 130 aircraft, over 300 hotels with 210,000 beds, twelve cruise liners and countless incoming agencies in all major holiday destinations around the globe. This integrated offering will enable us to provide our 30 million customers with an unmatched holiday experience in 180 regions. A key feature of our corporate culture is our global responsibility for economic, environmental and social sustainability. This is reflected in more than 20 years of commitment to sustainable tourism. In 2013/14 financial year the TUI Group with a headcount of 77,000 recorded turnover of €18.7 bn and an operating result of €869m. The TUI Group's share is listed on the London Stock Exchange in the FTSE index and in the regulated market of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange.

Tour operators: Many strong tour operators with leading positions in their own domestic markets are clustered under the roof of TUI Group. In Germany they include TUI Deutschland, 1-2-FLY, airtours and Wolters Reisen, in the UK Thomson and First Choice. TUI operators are also among the leading national brands in Austria, Poland, Switzerland, Denmark, Finland, Norway, Sweden, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Russia and the Ukraine.

Airlines: There are six proprietary airlines in the TUI Group operating more than 130 medium- and long-haul aircraft, including the largest fleet of the latest Boeing Dreamliners. The airlines are TUIfly, Thomson, TUIfly Nordic, Jetairfly, Corsair and ArkeFly, serving more than 180 destinations around the world.

Hotels: TUI Group operates over 300 hotels of its own with 210,000 beds in 24 countries. The facilities run by our brands are located in top-class settings in the holiday-making regions – offering a variety of hotel formats with high standards of business performance, service quality and environmental management. The Group's hotel portfolio includes such well-known brands as Riu and the premium-market Robinson Clubs.

Cruises: TUI Group gears operations to the specific desires of different customers. Hapag-Lloyd Kreuzfahrten, with four ships, is the leading provider of expedition and luxury cruises in the German-speaking market. The joint venture TUI Cruises offers premium voyages. The fleet currently consists of three vessels. Mein Schiff 4 will be launched in 2015. Thomson Cruises has five liners serving the British market. With Mein Schiff 5 and Mein Schiff 6, TUI Cruises has even ordered two more ships. Furthermore, it holds options on building Mein Schiff 7 and Mein Schiff 8.

Growth Strategy: Having established a healthy financial footing for the Group over the last 18 months, we are now launching the next phase of oneTUI. In the next few years we intend to expand our portfolio by altogether 60 new hotels and four new ships. This growth strategy will still be governed by the underlying principles of oneTUI: cash flow orientation and rigorous cost discipline.
